

Alameda County Reading Association
Proudly Presents

FREE Workshop for Parents
Help Your Child Succeed in
Reading & Writing
Practical Suggestions for K-6

Saturday, October 10, 2009
10 a.m. – 12 p.m.
New Haven Unified School District
Education Services Center (ESC)
34200 Alvarado Niles Rd, Union City

Come and learn research proven ideas for helping your child get the most out of reading and writing at home. Dozens of easy to use “teacher tips” that promote success for all children and can be incorporated into a busy parent’s schedule, will be shared. The fast-paced workshop will include demonstrations, handouts and ideas for practicing these techniques with your child.

Each family will receive a FREE grade appropriate children’s book to take home and use to practice these new skills. FREE WORKSHOP!!!

Reading Aloud to Your Child

New techniques for building better comprehension and phonics skills

Motivating books to use with various age groups

When Your Child Reads to You

How to help your child when he/she is stuck on a word or passage

Increase comprehension and learn ways to encourage your child to acquire a love of books, read more and improve fluency.

Improving Phonics and Spelling

Use the “making words” strategy to increase decoding and spelling skills.

Many useful writing and spelling ideas

It is important to Reserve your seat today to guarantee you will get a handout and book! SPACE IS LIMITED!! Visit our website at www.acreading.org to register on-line, mail registration to Nancy Panzica, 32984 Bluebird Loop, Fremont, CA 94536 or contact Nancy at npanz@comcast.net or (510) 487-9681 by October 3, 2009.

First Name of Parent/Guardian Last Name Phone # e-mail

First Name of Parent/Guardian Last Name Phone # e-mail

ACRA is affiliated with the California Reading Association and the International Reading Association